

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 18.

WEDDING.—Miss Edith Elworth Talmage, of Brooklyn, and Mr. Allan Edloe Dunson, of Richmond, Va., were united in marriage at the Brooklyn Tabernacle last night. Over 5,000 guests were present. The Tabernacle had been transformed for the occasion into a vast conservatory of flowers by the decorator. The edifice was filled before eight o'clock, the hour set for the ceremony, with the most brilliant assemblage ever seen in that city. The Rev. Dr. T. Dewitt Talmage, the father of the bride, and his brother, the Rev. Dr. Geyer Talmage officiated. The ushers were Winfield Scott, son of the late General Scott; Charles Wortham, Jas. Dunn and Scott Carrington; Miss Colquitt, daughter of Senator Colquitt; Miss Gelford, of Baltimore; Miss Tucker and Miss Gelfand, of New York, were bridesmaids. The bride was accompanied by Miss Mary Talmage, her sister, as maid of honor, and by two younger sisters as attendants. The bride wore white corded silk on train, with trimming of the finest duchess lace. Her ornaments were diamonds, the gift of the groom. The bridal bouquet was of lilies of the valley and orange blossoms. A reception followed at the family mansion, No. 1 South Oxford street, which, like the church, was a perfect bower of plants and flowers. The presents were almost innumerable, and were elegant and costly. Among those present were Gen. W. T. Sherman, Miss Sherman, Senator Colquitt, Mayor Whitney, Hon. and Mrs. J. S. T. Stranahan, Cyrus W. Field, ex-Mayor and Mrs. Seth Low, of Brooklyn, ex-Mayor Grace, of New York, Gen. and Mrs. Stewart L. Woodford, Miss Woodford, ex-Mayor and Mrs. F. A. Schroeder, of Brooklyn. Dr. Talmage used an impressive ceremony of his own composition, and before he gave his blessing addressed the couple in a few words of encouragement and advice. He spoke especially to his daughter. The bride's father presented her with a check for $500, and her mother gave her a piano.

Another Life Saved.

About two years ago a prominent citizen of Chicago was told by his physicians that he must die. They said his system was so debilitated that there was nothing left to build on. He made up his mind to try a "new departure." He got some of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" and took it according to directions. He began to improve at once. He kept up the treatment for some months, and is to day a well man. He says the "Discovery" saved his life.
